Katzenbach, as a reporte, raised concerns over the millions of gallons of water (37,400 gals. per truck) being sold to the mine. Trucks going to the mine for the last six week. She referred to an article in the PRT, April 2014 issue, quoting Manager Teel saying water levels were low.

C. Shafer addressed the council about possible violations of Town Ordinance Article 11-4.

Operating overweight vehicles without permits (Sec 11-4-1). Driving on non-designated truck routes that threaten public safety and disturb the public peace, (Section 11-4-3-B). Exceeding the limitations on maximum number of trips (Section 11-4-4-C[3]. She requested that the Town Council immediately direct the Marshal's office to enforce Article 11-4 and its penalty provisions (Article 11-4-7).

Water Trucks are driving down Duquesne Ave., creating a nuisance, public hazard and danger to residents and children.

Mr. Reibslager asked who makes the decision to sell water.

Rosie Piper spoke about a letter received from Town Manager Teel regarding sidewalk construction needed along the southeast side of McKeown Ave. She stated they received no notice, this came out of the blue. She felt they should not be responsible to pay for the sidewalk and wanted to know how the cost was arrived at. She does not think sidewalk is needed and feels if they pay for this, they will be expected to pay for something else later. Where does it end?

Mr. Katzenbach expressed concern over the speeding vehicles on Harshaw Ave. and asked for enforcement of the law.

Ollerton reported the museum has received two displays one from the Cowbelles and a mineral display.
